Q4

To reach our collective potential, we must work together to build up Ottawa. That requires a council in which each member commits to city wide leadership. What is your intended approach to collaboration with council, city staff and economic partners?

I have always found that working together on a common goal is always more fruitful. I will strive to ensure that the new council not only works together for a common goal but that we also include the city's various private partners and associations on our journey to success.

What key characteristics and skills do you possess that make you a great leader and ambassador for the city of Ottawa, and the national capital region?

I have had 19 years of boots on the ground experience in Ottawa, listening to the residents of Ottawa. I have been to every corner of Ottawa and back and I can say that Ottawa is a beautiful city.

The one thing I can promise Ottawa is that I will bring transparency, honesty, accountability, reliability, and affordability. We also need to bring a sense of safety for all residents in Ottawa and anyone visiting our beautiful city.

Q6

What are your top three priorities for Ottawa's future?

- Ensuring a safe, reliable, and affordable transit system
 - Ensuring Infrastructure & Emergency Services are future proof
 - Investing in affordable housing

All 3 priorities have 1 thing in common, they will need people to come together to build up Ottawa.
