Ward 13 - Rideau-Rockcliffe

Q4

To reach our collective potential, we must work together to build up Ottawa. That requires a council in which each member commits to city wide leadership. What is your intended approach to collaboration with council, city staff and economic partners?

I take pride in approach to work in a collaborative and congenial fashion with Council, residents, and the business community to achieve actionable objectives.

What key characteristics and skills do you possess that make you a great leader and ambassador for the city of Ottawa, and the national capital region?

I am experienced, results-based community leader and activist who has lived in Rideau-Rockcliffe for nearly 20 years. Before election as Ottawa's first Black City Councillor, I was president of the Overbrook Community Association, Treasurer at the Rideau-Rockcliffe Community Resource Centre and Co-Chair of the Ottawa Police Service's Community Equity Council, which aims to bridge the gaps between police and racialized communities. I have experience as an entrepreneur and a communications, marketing and market research professional.

Q6

What are your top three priorities for Ottawa's future?

Housing affordability, transit reliability, climate change

Q7

Yes, I would like to attend.
