Ward 2 - Orleans West-Innes

Q4

To reach our collective potential, we must work together to build up Ottawa. That requires a council in which each member commits to city wide leadership. What is your intended approach to collaboration with council, city staff and economic partners?

When elected, I intend to continue to be open-minded and approach the Council Table with collaboration in mind. In order for this City to thrive, all Councillors must work towards a whole-of-city approach, while representing the interests of their residents. I am open to hearing the views of all stakeholders.

What key characteristics and skills do you possess that make you a great leader and ambassador for the city of Ottawa, and the national capital region?

I have been a resident of the Ottawa-Gatineau area for more than two decades. As a single-parent to three children, who are now independent adults, I regularly volunteered and also owned and operated a small business in Gloucester, Chelsea, and Wakefield while teaching and researching at post-secondary educational institutions in Ottawa for almost 20 years.

Q6

What are your top three priorities for Ottawa's future?

1. Public and active transportation that serves our community

- We must restore and improve upon the community public transit lines through Ottawa communities.

2. Eliminating developer influence and the democratic deficit at city hall

- I will push for a strong policy that will significantly limit the revolving door between the developers and those at City Hall who oversee decisions on their applications.

3. Accountable, accessible municipal government

- We need to establish an accountable City Hall that all residents of Ottawa can trust - one that is free from the influence of narrow private interests.
