Q4

To reach our collective potential, we must work together to build up Ottawa. That requires a council in which each member commits to city wide leadership. What is your intended approach to collaboration with council, city staff and economic partners?

My decades of service to my community establishes my credentials as a consensus builder and having a passion to help others. I prefer to work with everyone to find better solutions to issues. My standard has been to find a solution where everyone feels they win.

Q5

What key characteristics and skills do you possess that make you a great leader and ambassador for the city of Ottawa, and the national capital region?

Experienced leader

Consensus builder

compassionate

Respect for all views

Passionate about our community

I have traveled our country from coast to coast and to the USA representing our city or our country already with success.

Q6

What are your top three priorities for Ottawa's future?

Lowest possible taxes and fees

Less red tape and better processes. More stakeholder engagement.

Redesigned transit system to build reliability and ridership while being affordable for taxpayers and riders.

Q7

Yes, I would like to attend.
